

CAMS Music Trust is delighted to present

World Music Day

led by Jon Banks

1000 – 1530 Sunday 26th February 2017

St. Matthews Primary School, Cambridge CB1 2LD

Open to all instrumentalists

Play the exhilarating dance melodies of Eastern European Klezmer, gain an insight into fascinating Mediterranean and Arabic rhythms and try some gentle improvisation. Instruments such as violins, flutes, clarinets, sax, trumpet and guitars are welcome. Please ask about other instruments. Players should be competent on their instrument (around Grade V).

Venue: St. Matthews Primary School, Norfolk St, Cambridge CB1 2LD

Time: 1000 – 1530 Sunday 26th February 2017

Registration and coffee from 0930

Cost: Adults £25. Students and unwaged £15. Booking essential

Payable on the day by cash or cheque.

Please bring a packed lunch, and if possible, a music stand.

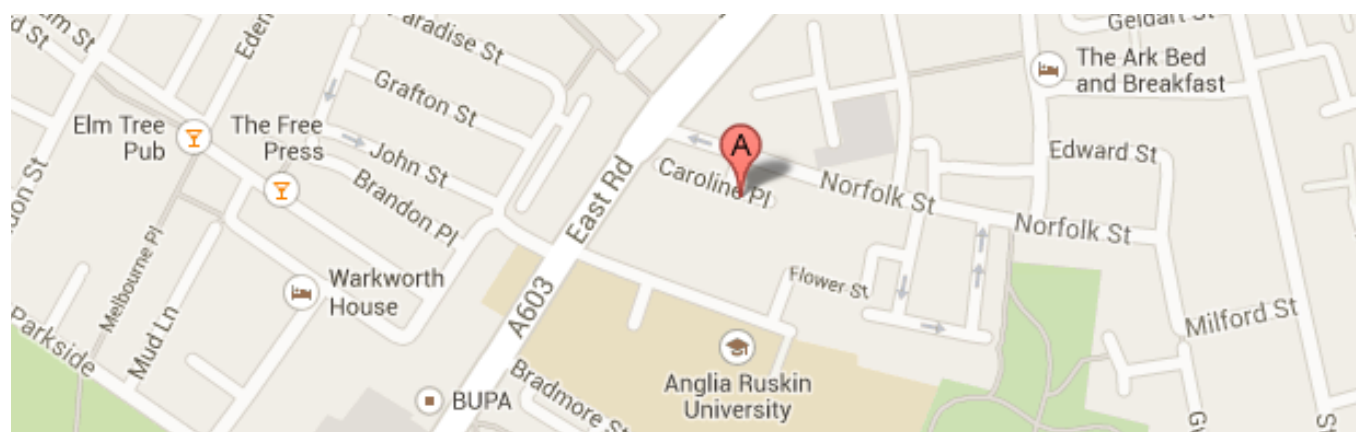

To reserve your place, or if you have any questions or queries, email Janet Walker at janet.walker3@googlemail.com or call her on 01223 690157/07751 600315

Jon Banks

Dr. Jon Banks is a multi-instrumentalist and musicologist with a wide range of musical skills and experience. He is in demand for his musical versatility in film and theatre, and has toured with several bands: currently he plays with ZRI, an ensemble that plays Brahms in the spirit of a gypsy band. He lectures in ethnomusicology and leads the World Music Ensemble at Anglia Ruskin University

Venue

St Matthew's Primary School (entrance through Caroline Place).

Cams Music Trust   @CamsMusicTrust
www.camsmusic.org camsmusictrustoffice@gmail.com